I trust that you are enjoying your visits to the market and have noticed continuing improvement and growth. The wonderful range of fresh, regional produce, the central location and setting and the friendly atmosphere make our market unique. Membership is an integral part of the market's ongoing viability.

The Victor Harbor Farmers' Market is committed to ...

- Creating jobs locally
Preserving local farmlands
Raising the profile of locally produced food
Food education and healthy eating
Supporting the local community and events
Reducing food miles

You can pay online and pick up your card from the membership stand on Saturday.
